THE following is from the Manner Question

Yokohama April 24, Shanghai April 30, Foothow April 30, Hongkong May 5. The French mail, with advices dated as above from China, was delivered, via Naples, on the 13th ult., its due date. There were no later advices from Japan, via San Francisco. The next inward mail was despatched from Alexandria on the 16th ultimo, one day late. The Messageries Maritimes steamer Anadyr, with the following homeward mail, left Suck for Naples also on the 16th, three days early.

In the Times of India, June 28th, it is announced that Mr Grant Duff had declined the Governorship of Madras and that Sir Ashley Eden, Lieutenant Governor of Bengal was to be appointed. According to the Bombay Gazette, it is stated from Simla that Sir U. C. Aitchison would probably go to Madras. The appointment of a Civil Servant, it was generally thought, would mean the reduction of Madras to a Lieutenant-Governorship. The only telegram received by the Indian papers up to the latest date in the files we have to hand, June 30th, was one dated June 28th, which was confined to these words,-"The Governorship of Madras has been offered to Mr Grant Duff." The telegram we published on the 14th instant went the length of saying that "Mr Grant Doff had bocepted the offer and been duly appointed Governor of Madras." This is supported by the Pioneer's private telegraphic It is stated that the Italian Government advices, and they are seldom inaccurate,

The idea of a Civil Servant being that on the 28th June, Lord Hartington, replying to a question in the Commons, said the substitution of a Lieutenant Governor for a Governor of Madras would require a special Act which it would take some time to pass; the appointment in the meantime could not be so long kept vacant, and would be filled up. On the following night his Lordship, replying to another question about the Governorship of Madras, said that personally he believed the policy of the proposed change of the Governorship to a Lieutenant Governorship was very doubtful. The whole affair is considerably help thinking that it is correct that Grant Duff goes to Madras.

of June 30th breaking down of the mail steamer; but one is holding out. The correctness of report we take leave to doubt. Peking we take the following from the Straits Times, of the 19th inst .:-

The P. & O. Mail steamer Pekin, Capt. Anderson, which left this port at 10 a.m. on Saturday last, the 16th inst., for Hongkong, broke her main shaft during the same night when about 65 miles to the northward of Pulo Adr. About 12 hours roughfares are very great, and quite dister the accident, the S. S. Carisbrooke, tracting to men of business, particularly in port, car a up and took her in tow, arriving kept open. It is not the noise of passing here at 7 o'clock this morning. The Pekin carriages that is the occasion of annoyance, will have to go to the Co,'s wharf and dis- but the unnecessary noise made by the charge part of her cargo in order to replace human voice. The Chinese human voice her shaft, which will detain her here for is remarkably strident, at least amongst some days. The mails will, however, be those of the Celestial race who live and forwarded this evening, if possible, by the work much in the open air. A couple of O. S. S. Co.'s steamer Descalion, which Chinamen going to market about four in vessel's departure has been accelerated for the morning will converse in a tone of voice this purpose. We understand, also, that suitable to an agriculturist who is addressshe has been liberally subsidised by the ing a neighbour in the next field but one Postmaster-General to proceed at her the pair, or perhaps a party of them, will quickest possible speed with the mails as keep up a noisy conversation, interspersed far as Hongkong, and if there be no other with loud guttural grunts. When your steamer ready at Hongkong for Shanghai, early morning's sleep has been put at end she will carry them on to that port.

PASSENGER CERTIFICATES. To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL." ~

Sin,-The documents published in Saturlay's Gazette in connection with the Glamis Castle are instructive if not amusing. Rule 7 of the Chinese Passengers' Act is as follows :-- "When the vessel is passed the agent or charterer will make the usual application for a license," &c., &c. Rule 18 (sec. E) recites that among papers to be lodged with the Emigration Officer before clearance are :- "Passenger List in duplicate, with aummary attached, specifying the numbers respectively of Passengers and Crow."

It appears from the printed documents that the agents of the steamer made the usual formal application for a license on the 22nd April; this was approved by the members of the Executive Council on the 22nd and 23rd; and on the latter date was submitted to the Governor, who in the absence of any assigned reason for not doing so, should at once have signed it. Does he do so, however ! Oh no; on the contrary he formulates the following minute-Let me see the list of 839 Chinese Emi-How in the name of reason can steamer agent be expected to engage to carry passengers before he gets a license to carry Tho license should have been at once issued on the 23rd April, and if there were any fault to be found with the examination, or the conditions upon which the Chinese emigrated, the time to find such fault was surely when the list in duplicate required by the Act was deposited. Clearance could then have been refused.

Instead, however, of adhering to what is the evident intention of the Act. His Excelloncy overrides and places himself above Law, saying in effect-" Engage passengers and contract to carry them to certain places, then if it so please me I shall give you a license to do so; if not you must settle with the passengers whom you contracted to carry, but cannot in consequence of my refusal, as best you may!" (Straits Times.) A sad accident occurred in the harbour on Sunday evening (10th), resulting in the death by drowning of Mr William R. Evans. 3rd mate of the British ship Dolbarden Castle. Mr Evans had borrowed the Captain's dingly to visit some friends on board the British ship Derbyshire, lying in the roads, and in company with three friends from that ship started for the shore at half-mat nix in the evening. When within about 200 or 300 yards from Johnston's pier, they began playing, or as it is termed, "syklarking" in the boat and it was capsized. Evans sank and never rose again; the other three clung to the boat till they were rescued by a boat from the steamer Bentan. Search has been made for the body of the unfortunate Mr Evans. but it he not yet been found; and it is believed he must have fallen a prey to the sharks that abound in the harbour.

Hongkong.-Northern Claistian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record nontains the fotlowing notice of the China Review " This is the title of a publication, the first number Victoria Recreation Club-Bath-house of which has lately reached us from flongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some-respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as In China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar. to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great dogree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, EWEN, FRICKEL & Co. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highlycreditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to For find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure | Two its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will To form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents in cluding postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper, ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, anlongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business andlegal footing. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of Money Order Regulations.

1 - Money Orders are exchanged with the United Kingdom, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Port Darwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also issues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa.

2.—Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent, for cashing them,

3.-Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way. An application for an order* is filled up, and is enclosed with a stamped, directed, and unsealed envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails.

4.-No order must exceed £10, or $50, or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same rerson, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day; and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived.
